SUBJECT: Year-End Report: Hate Crime 2018
PSB 19-013

BACKGROUND:

Hate/Bias Crime

As defined in the Policing Standards of Ontario, Hate/Bias crime is “a criminal offence committed against a person or property which is motivated solely, or in part, by the suspect’s Hate/Bias against a person’s race, religion, ethnicity, colour, sexual orientation, mental or physical disability, age, sex, gender, gender identity or expression”. This definition has been adopted by the Hamilton Police Service and incorporated within our internal policy.

In the Criminal Code of Canada, hate crimes can be separated into two (2) distinct categories – those that fall under the Hate Propaganda section and any other criminal offences where there is evidence to support a hate/bias motivation.

Hate Propaganda offences include the following:

- Advocating Genocide
- Willful Promotion of Hatred against an Identifiable Group
- Public Incitement of Hatred

Under the Mischief section of the Criminal Code (s. 430. (4.1)) a charge of Mischief to Religious Property can be laid if it can be proven that the act was committed by bias, prejudice or hate based on religion, race, colour, or national or ethnic origin.

To lay a charge for Advocating Genocide or Willful Promotion of Hatred against an Identifiable Group, the Attorney General’s consent must be received. Each of these offences is specific and includes the targeting of a person from an identifiable group.

An identifiable group is defined by the Criminal Code of Canada under section 318 (4) as “any section of the public distinguished by colour, race, religion, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression”. With respect to all other criminal offences, before an occurrence can be classified as “Hate/Bias”, there must be evidence present demonstrating the criminal offence was motivated by bias, prejudice or hate, based on the victim’s race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other similar factor.

Hate Crime Unit (HCU)

The Hamilton Police Service’s Hate Crime Unit (HCU) operates under the Intelligence Branch located in the Investigative Services Division. The HCU was established in 2003 and concentrates on incidents where hate or bias has been identified as a precipitating component in the commission of a criminal offence.

The HPS Hate Crime Investigator is also a member of the Hate Crime/Extremism Investigative Team (HCEIT) of Ontario. The mandate of the HCEIT is to conduct coordinated, strategic and tactical intelligence enforcement operations and to target those individuals or organized groups involved in hate motivated activity and criminal extremism on a multi-jurisdictional level. The team is made up of 15 police agencies across Southern Ontario.

Statistical Overview

Note: It should be noted that all hate/bias crimes are hate/bias events, but not all hate/bias events are classified as hate/bias crimes.

In 2018, a total of 125 hate/bias events were reported to the Hamilton Police. Of this total number of reported events, 5 involved offences that were committed against a person or property and fell within the parameters of a hate/bias crime, as defined and utilized by the Hamilton Police Service. Incidents were classified, as follows:

1. Hate/Bias Motivated Crimes: Includes any criminal offence where there is information to illustrate that the offence was motivated solely, or in part, because of a bias or prejudice, based on the victim’s race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression or any other similar factor (includes all Hate Propaganda offences).

2. Hate/Bias Motivated Incident (Overtones): This category includes any event that involves hate or bias towards any member of the public because of their race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other similar factor. These incidents cannot be proven to have been motivated solely or in part because of the person's bias/prejudice towards the victim, but include some type of racial overtone, i.e. the use of racial epithets/odious remark.
3. Incident: An Incident includes events that occurred at a place of worship, a private dwelling house or business belonging to a member of an identifiable group. The motivation is ambiguous and there is no information/evidence to suggest that the incident occurred due to hate or bias. The event is captured for the purposes of data/tracking in the case of a reoccurrence.

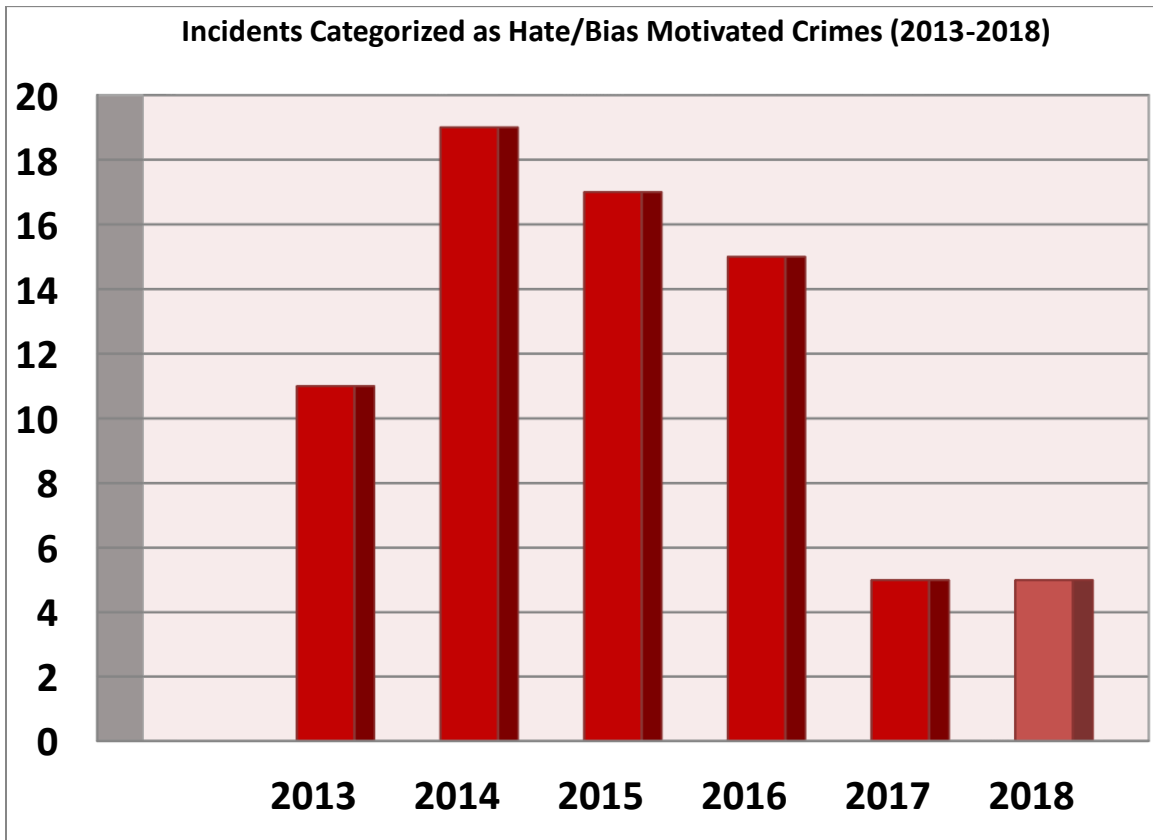

Identified Patterns from Overall Reported Events in 2018

There were 58 reported events which were directly related to racial bias (RA). Twenty three of these events were mischief (graffiti) related. Most of the graffiti events occurred on streets, other public areas, city parks and at or near schools.

Overall, there was a decrease in the total number of reported events from 2017. In 2017, a total of 136 events were reported, compared to 125 in 2018. This represents an 8% decrease.

By way of comparison, the following chart shows the breakdown of the hate/bias motivated crimes in relation to the total hate/bias incidents reported annually over the last 6 year period (see Figure 1).

Victimization by Identified Group

The Black community was the target of 41 events in 2018. The Jewish community was the second most targeted community with 30 events, and 18 events were reported targeting community members that identified as gay. Members of the East, South East and West Asian communities, Islamic, Protestant, Catholic, Aboriginal, White and Transgender communities also reported hate/bias incidents.

Although the statistics from police reports provide a measure of quantity of incidents, the overall impact on each group can be profound regardless of the numbers. It is important to acknowledge there are secondary victims for each crime that include family, friends and community members who identify with the targeted groups. Reported hate crimes are broken down by type and category in Figure 2.

Hamilton Police Service – 2018 Hate/Bias Statistical Report

Executive Summary

The Hamilton Police Service Hate Crime Unit is mandated to investigate criminal offences and incidents that are motivated solely or in part because of the suspect's hate, bias or prejudice against a person based on the victim's race, religion, ethnicity, colour, sexual orientation, mental or physical disability, age, sex, gender identity or expression, or other similar factor. This includes all hate propaganda offences.

In 2018, a total of 125 hate/bias incidents were reported to the Hamilton Police Service. This number represents both suspected hate/bias incidents and criminal offences. This represents a decrease of 8% over 2017.

All events were classified by the Hate Crimes Investigator based on the information furnished by the investigating officers or by the person(s) directly involved. The classifications and a breakdown of 2018 incidents are as follows:

- Hate/bias crimes - 5
- Hate/bias incidents (overtones) - 120

The greatest number of reported incidents was directly related to racial bias (RA). A total of 58 incidents were recorded for this category. The second highest reported incidents related to religion (RE) with a total of 49 incidents recorded. The third highest number of incidents were in relation to sexual orientation (SO) where a total of 18 incidents were recorded.

Members of the Black community were the most targeted racialized group incurring 41 hate/bias incidents. Under the religious category the most targeted group were members of the Jewish community with 30 incidents. The events in this category were predominately mischief related graffiti.

Under-Reporting

The data in this report was gathered from crimes and incidents that were reported to the Hamilton Police Service. While the Hate Crime Unit actively encourages the community to report all incidents, it is aware that not all incidents are reported to police.

There are several reasons why hate bias incidents are not reported, including people may feel the crime was not important or the chances of the police apprehending the suspect are low. Some victims see the incident as a personal matter, it may involve family or colleagues, or there may be a feeling of blame and/or embarrassment about being targeted. The victim may not understand that they have been victimized or they may endeavour to solve the issue themselves. Previous negative experiences with the police and judicial system, whether in Canada or overseas, may also affect the willingness of a victim to report to police.

The importance of encouraging victims to report incidents to police cannot be understated. The effect these crimes have on the wider community has been described as a form of terrorism because of the fear that is spread.

Building strong positive relationships between the Hamilton Police Service and the diverse communities in Hamilton will encourage trust and lead to victims feeling more comfortable in reporting incidents to police. Throughout 2018, the Hamilton Police Service Hate Crime Unit made a number of presentations to various religious and minority groups in the City. This continuing outreach allows the Hate Crime Unit to address citizens' concerns and encourages increased reporting and information sharing.

Hate/Bias Crime

A hate crime is defined as “any criminal offence committed against a person or property that is motivated, in whole or in part, by bias or prejudice based on real or perceived race, ancestry, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression or any other similar factor...” This definition has been adopted by the Hamilton Police Service and included in our Policies and Procedures.

The Hamilton Police Service strives to assist victims of crime on a daily basis. This can be challenging at times as many victims are traumatized and shocked by the events that they are caught up in. With victims of hate crime, this trauma can be even more severe because most victims are also members of groups that are not part of the dominant culture. This is usually why they are attacked in the first place. Members of minority groups suffer prejudice and discrimination on a daily basis and when they become victims of a hate/bias crime or incident, their interaction with the Hamilton Police Service and the criminal justice system plays an important role in helping the victim heal. The Hamilton Police Service Hate Crime Unit is committed to providing assistance in whatever way it can to victims of hate crime to assist in the healing and judicial process.

Hate/bias crimes and incidents also send a message to the wider community. Studies have shown that although victims may be targeted on a personal level other victims may be chosen to spread fear in that victim’s community.

Definitions

Reported events were classified according to the following definitions:

Hate/Bias Crimes

Includes any criminal offence where there is information to illustrate that the offence was motivated solely, or in part, because of a bias or prejudice, based on the victim’s race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other similar factor. Includes all Hate Propaganda offences.

Hate/Bias Incident (Overtones)

Includes any incident that involves hate or bias towards any member of the public because of their race, national or ethnic origin, language, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other similar factor. These incidents cannot be proven to have been motivated solely or in part because of the person’s bias/prejudice towards the victim, but include some type of racial overtone (i.e., the use of racial epithets / odious remarks).

Note: It should be noted that all hate/bias crimes are hate/bias incidents, but not all hate/bias incidents are classified as hate/bias crimes.

Hamilton Police Service – 2018 Hate/Bias Statistical Report

Presentations on hate crime are continually being done to all members of the Service and the various units and included in this training were the members of the communication staff and Victim Services' new civilian employees.

An ongoing dialogue with the Hamilton Crown Attorney's Office on hate/bias related matters is a valuable educational tool to improve the quality of crown briefs.

Conclusion

While in 2018 the Hamilton Police Service Hate Crime Unit has seen a decrease in hate motivated crime and hate/bias incidents, it is imperative that we continue to monitor and address all incidents involving hate, bias or discrimination.

The Hate Crime Unit remains committed to investigating hate/bias motivated crimes and incidents. The Hamilton Police Service recognizes that hate crime has a devastating impact on victims and communities. The Hamilton Police Service will continue to partner with community groups and other stakeholders to educate the public and members of the Hamilton Police Service on hate/bias crimes.

Our community needs to be committed and diligent in reporting hate/bias crimes. We still have many unreported hate/bias crimes and incidents. The Hamilton Police Service will continue to be vigilant and promote the reporting of hate crimes through our community outreach.
